JAMES P. SILO, - - - - - AUCTIONEER

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold.

2. The Purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit of at least 25 per cent., or the whole of the purchase money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's Expense and risk within 24 hours after the conclusion of the Sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold himself responsible if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.

4. No checks received unless certified.

5. The sale of any Article is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description or imperfection, and no warranty whatever is made. All Articles are sold just as they are, without recourse.

6. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can, on any account, be removed during the Sale.

7. No claims allowed after the removal of goods.

8. Our record of Sales in all cases final.

9. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold by public or priate Sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such resale shall be made good by the defaulter at this Sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this Sale, without such resale, if he thinks fit.

AIMÉ PERRET

Paris

Received a number of medals at the Salon and was made a member of the Legion of Honor. The Minister of Art has bought many of Perret's works for the Musée du Luxembourg and for museums in other cities, and one of his paintings was acquired by the city of Paris. Aimé Perret is called the painter of the happy and prosperous peasants, while Millet painted the very poor toilers of the fields. There are French critics who predict that history will place the name of Aimé Perret in the same class with that of Rousseau, Corot, Millet and all the great artists who have shown us the poetry, the joys and sorrows of the fields and their eternal beauty. His paintings are in many prominent collections in this country. The owner of this collection has had no greater success with the works of any other artist.

Is recognized as one of the leading artists of the modern French school. The French government has acquired several of his works for the Musée du Luxembourg and commissioned him to paint a number of panels for the Ministry of Agriculture. He was awarded a Gold Medal of the First Class at the exhibition in the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburg, 1907.
